

Activities for Holistic Development of Students

To nurture the comprehensive growth of students, the college organized a series of invited lectures, workshops, and motivational sessions throughout the academic year. These programmes aimed to strengthen students' knowledge, skills, values, and overall personality by engaging them with experts from diverse professional fields.

A Guest Lecture on "Income Generation Through Radio" by Sh. Hardeep Chandpuri from the Media sector (4 September) provided students with insights into creative career avenues. This was followed by a highly informative Workshop on HIV/AIDS Awareness conducted on 12 September by Ms. Anjana Sharma, ICTC Counselor, Baddi, and Mr. Suresh Sharma, Project Manager, Plan India, under the Red Ribbon Club.

On 3 October, the Eco Club invited Mr. Prakash Mehta from the Jatayu Conservation and Breeding Centre, Pinjore, for a session on Vulture Conservation, sensitising students to wildlife protection. This was complemented by a session on Life Skills and Stress Management by Dr. Anviksha Jagota (11 October), focusing on emotional resilience and well-being.

A motivational talk on Competition and Hard Work was organized on 22 October by Mr. Inderpal and Mr. Shashikant under NSS, inspiring students to cultivate discipline and perseverance.

Further, the CC&PC conducted several career-oriented lectures, including:

1. Communication Skills: A Driving Force Behind a Successful Career, by Prof. Praveen Kumar, Retd. Principal (11 November);
2. Wellness Industry and Career Opportunities, by the team from Vrindavan Chikitsalaya (25 November);
3. Think Global, Act Local: Entrepreneurship Skills, by Agrestal Organic Living, Baddi (27 November);
4. Textile Designing and Fashion Technology, by Nirmal Textiles, Baddi (7 December); and
5. Job Opportunities in the Banking Sector, by Mr. Paramvir Arya, Manager, UCO Bank, Baddi (11 March).

On 25 February, the Gender Equality and Women Empowerment Cell held an enriching session on Gender Equality delivered by Dr. Promil Diwan from the School of Law, Aggarwal University. This was followed by an Awareness Lecture on Substance Use by Ms. Jyoti Sharma Bhardwaj from an NGO on 28 February, organized by the Anti-Drug Cell.

Collectively, these diverse programmes strengthened academic knowledge, life skills, social awareness, career readiness, and ethical values—ensuring the holistic development of students across intellectual, emotional, social, and professional domains.
